

AUGUST 23 & 24 (2 WEEKEND DAYS)

INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPANTS WANTED FOR ART WORKSHOP!

Workshop in Kunisaki (transportation, food & one night stay provided)!!

In Kunisaki land, where ancient bouddhism culture have been brought from China and Korea, we would like to invite international audiences to take part of a workshop on the production of the Japanese contemporary artist, Tatsuo Miyajima: "Hundred Life Houses", an artwork composed by 100 concrete small houses illuminated with a LED digital counter. The artwork will be presented on a magnificent natural stone monument in Kunisaki.

(artwork location)

Date: August 23 & 24 (Sat. & Sun.), 2014

Location: Kunisaki peninsula (joubutsu area)

Capacity: 20 people

Participation: Free. Transportation, food catering, one night stay provided. (contact us for details)

Application: Deadline: August 15, 2014. Send us an email at info@beppuproject.com

Content: During the workshop, participants will help making concrete small houses and set up the LED digital counter for an artwork. The artist, Tatsuo Miyajima will be leading the workshop for two days, giving explanation about his artwork. Tatsuo Miyajima is an invited artist and his artwork will be presented this Autumn for the "Kunisaki Art Festival 2014". Besides the workshop, participants will experience the Kunisaki natural environment and the villages' life with their local festivals.